

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Deadline: March 15, 2011

windScript has been publishing the best of writing by Saskatchewan students in grades nine to twelve since 1983 and we welcome students to submit creative writing in any and all forms—poetry, prose, and creative non-fiction—for Volume 28 of windScript.

As of 2004, windScript has been published on-line through the Saskatchewan Writers' Guild's website at www.skwriter.com.

Please note that as in all writing competitions, these guidelines are very important and must be followed in order for submissions to be accepted.

Submission guidelines:

1. Type or print neatly on 8 1/2 by 11 single-sided, unlined white paper.
2. Proofread your manuscript.
3. In a covering letter, provide the following information:
 - your name, your home phone number, mailing address and email
 - the genre of writing you are submitting
 - the title(s) of your poems or stories
 - the name, address and phone number of your school and teacher
 - a fifty-word biography (if we publish your work, we will use this information, so be creative)
4. Always keep a copy of your submitted work. Submissions will not be returned.
5. Submit a maximum of six poems. Do not put more than one poem on a page. Each poem must be on a separate page. Prose works must not exceed 1500 words.
6. All work must be original from start to finish. Writers submitting plagiarized work will be banned from windScript.
7. Do not put your name on the poems or stories themselves.
8. To fasten submissions, use paper clips (including fold-back clips)—avoid staples.
9. Deadline for submissions: March 15, 2011.
10. Mail submissions to windScript, Box 3986, Regina SK S4P 3R9 or email education@skwriter.com

For more information please contact:

Beth McLean, Education & Publications Officer;
306-791-7746; education@skwriter.com

